

War Era Story Project 2012

Submitted by: David V. Drake

Current home town: North Jackson, Ohio

Age: 82

Where Was I in WWII

My birthday is Dec. 7. My family and relatives were gathered at our house for my birthday. As we prepared to cut the cake, someone turned on the radio. The somber news about the bombing of Pearl Harbor was being broadcast. That was a date that will always be remembered by me. I can still see the circle of hushed relatives around the radio.